Where does our funding go to?

The college spends its income on the running of its academic and vocational departments, providing academic and pastoral support services (such as the LRC, IT services, study support, careers advice and welfare services), management and administration and maintaining its buildings and other facilities.

Due to the careful allocation of our funds - the college has been able to invest in upgrading its facilities, which recently have included the Learning Resource Centres, increasing computer facilities, refurbishing the College's training restaurant and the building of a state of the art Science, Engineering and Construction Skills Centre.
